

Certificate of Appreciation

To Andrew J. Mohr

For your unselfish and patriotic services as a member of the uncompensated personnel of the Selective Service Administration in the State of Utah during the World War II emergency, the State of Utah expresses its sincere appreciation and its gratitude. The State of Utah takes justifiable pride in its contribution to the armed forces and to the war effort during this crisis in our National life. Your devotion to duty, industriously and without financial compensation, substantially contributed to this splendid result and made our glorious victory possible. This certificate is issued in recognition and acknowledgment of your services in that Administration, on behalf of your State and your Nation.

Dated at Salt Lake City, Utah, this 11th day of February, 1946.

ATTEST:

Edwin H. Mearns
GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF UTAH

Earl Brown
SECRETARY OF THE STATE OF UTAH

Harold Fisk
STATE DIRECTOR OF SELECTIVE SERVICE

SECRETARY OF THE STATE OF UTAH

Certificate of Appreciation

To Andrew J. Mohr

For your unselfish and patriotic services as a member of the uncompensated personnel of the Selective Service Administration in the State of Utah during the World War II emergency, the State of Utah expresses its sincere appreciation and its gratitude. The State of Utah takes justifiable pride in its contribution to the armed forces and to the war effort during this crisis in our National life. Your devotion to duty, voluntarily and without financial compensation, substantially contributed to this splendid result and made our glorious victory possible. This certificate is issued in recognition and acknowledgment of your services in that Administration, on behalf of your State and your Nation.

Dated at Salt Lake City, Utah, this 11th day of February, 1946.

ATTEST:

GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF UTAH

Edw. J. Mohr

Edw. J. Mohr